Detailed instructions, registration level descriptions, and updates available at www.AmericansForTheArts.org/AAD.

PAYMENT: Registration payments made with credit card or purchase order number information can be processed online, by fax, or by mail. However, payments made by check or registrations for student groups can only be processed by mail. Registrations are not considered complete until all fees are paid in full. All payments must be received by Monday, March 29, 2010. Registrations received after this date will not be processed in advance and you will be asked to register on site and provide payment at that time.

QUESTIONS? E-mail events@artsusa.org.

ADMISSION:

You are required to wear your name badge to all conference events and meal functions. Admission will be denied to those without a badge. Replacement badges may be purchased at the Registration Desk for $25.

CANCELLATION AND REFUND POLICY:

All requests for refunds must be made in writing to Americans for the Arts c/o Meetings and Events. Full refunds, minus a $50 administrative fee, will be issued to requests received by Friday, March 29, 2010. Refund requests received after this deadline will not be considered.

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE:

A regularly updated and detailed schedule of Arts Advocacy Day training sessions and events, including the 23rd Annual Nancy Hanks Lecture on Arts and Public Policy, can be found on the Schedule page of the Arts Advocacy Day website.

NEW

A new workshop on Advanced Messaging for Veteran Advocates has been added to the training sessions taking place on Monday morning, April 12, 2010. Are you an experienced arts advocate who has attended several Arts Advocacy Day conferences in the past? If so, you may be interested in signing up for this special session for veteran advocates. In this collaborative and interactive workshop, veteran advocates will be able to test out their arguments, practice their messaging, and brainstorm solutions with the group to common advocacy challenges. Space is limited, so check the indicated box on the registration form and Americans for the Arts will notify those selected to participate.

During the lunch break on Monday, April 12, 2010, you will have the opportunity to meet face-to-face with your Arts Advocacy Day State and District Captains and plan your lobbying visits to Capitol Hill during the State and District Captains Lunch. Boxed lunch tickets for this event are $25 each and must be purchased in advance, no later than the registration deadline, Monday, March 29, 2010. On-site sales cannot be guaranteed.

CONFIRMATION:

All attendees will receive confirmation of registration via e-mail. If you have not received a confirmation notice within three weeks of submitting your registration, or if you wish to change your registration information, please contact us by e-mail at events@artsusa.org.

HOUSING AND TRAVEL:

Americans for the Arts has reserved a block of discounted rooms ($229 per night + taxes) at the Omni Shoreham Hotel (Arts Advocacy Day headquarters). Visit the Travel and Housing page on the Arts Advocacy Day website for reservation information and other travel details. The phone number for the Omni is 888.444.6664. The last day to guarantee the "Arts Advocacy Day" discounted rate is Monday, March 22, 2010.

REGISTRATION LEVELS:

National CoSponsorship Level:

- Encouraged for cultural, civic, and educational organizations with nationwide and regional interests.
- Helps shape the legislative platforms and message for Arts Advocacy Day
- Receives national recognition of your organization on print and online Arts Advocacy Day materials as well as the opportunity to participate in special policy conference call briefings throughout the year.

NEW

State and Local Grassroots Partnership Level:

- Encouraged for cultural, civic, and educational organizations with local, state, or regional interests.
- Receives national recognition for your advocacy leadership efforts on Capitol Hill in April as well as the opportunity to lead coordinated congressional visits back home during the August recess.
- Invited to participate in special conference call policy briefings throughout the year.

Individual and Student Registration Levels:

- Encouraged for individuals and organizations who want to register for the Arts Advocacy Day training conference and participate in congressional team visits.
- Discounted registration fees are available for individual students and student groups of 10 or more. Valid student ID is required.

ROOMMATE REFERRAL PROGRAM:

Interested in sharing a room with another Arts Advocacy Day attendee to save on housing costs? Check the Roommate Referral Box on the registration form and we will send you a list of other interested attendees. To be eligible, you must submit the request on your registration form no later than Friday, March 12, 2010. If you are interested in this program, please visit our Ways to Save page for more information about sharing rooms.

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATION:

We want to ensure that your conference experience is pleasant and comfortable. Attendees needing special accommodations including ADA access, hearing or visual aids, or special meal request are encouraged to indicate these items on the registration form. You may also contact us by e-mail at events@artsusa.org.
